Important notice: Parts delivered by Diesel Technic are being distinguished by their respective batch number. For legal reasons, when storing the products and issuing invoices as well as in all further sales, you should always make reference to these batch numbers as well as to our article numbers.

Such an approach is necessary due to legally required duties. This will enable keeping track of every exact part in the event of a product recall.

Our general terms and conditions of sale, delivery and payment and warranty conditions for the product brands DT Spare Parts or SIEGEL Automotive shall apply, which we will gladly send you on request.

We shall not be liable for possible transport and consequential damage of shipments not insured by us.

Definition of Origin according to standard ISO-3166-1.

The indication of customs tariff numbers in our invoices is without obligation and does not deprive the recipient of the goods from the responsibility of his own verification.
