Please, DON'T STEAL OUR PRODUCT PHOTOS. Our little company spends a lot in resources to get good pics. It bums us out on a personal level to see our pictures used by sites selling boxes - most often by the very customers we are proud to serve with love and integrity.

IF YOU REQUESTED AND INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING QUOTE If you submitted a request for an international quote, your credit card has not been charged and you should receive your shipping quote the next business day. Your bank will temporarily hold funds in your account equal to the amount of your shipping quote order. If you let us know you want to cancel the order, your bank will release the funds in 1-2 business days.

Canadian customers Please know we have set up a new NRI program for shipping into Canada. All shipping charges, destination taxes, brokerage feed and COD charges will be collected by BRP before your items are shipped. This will make for an easy transition through customs and no additional charges when the order is delivered to your door.

International customers (other than Canada) You are responsible for Taxes and Import Charges upon delivery of your goods. We are always looking for ways to make things easier and are presently developing a system to simplify these charges and save you time and money. For now, all international customers are responsible for paying these additional fees.
