Please Remember:

- Inspect your shipment for damage. If shipping carton(s) show signs of potential damage remove/open carton for thorough inspection. Do not accept damaged merchandise. Contact us as soon as possible to report damage and we will promptly ship you a replacement. We are not responsible for damaged shipments. In the event you accept damaged merchandise, you incur all responsibility associated with filing a claim with the delivering carrier and repairing or replacing the damaged merchandise.
- Inspect your shipment for proper item count. Occasionally several items will ship shrink wrapped on one pallet and each will be itemized on the delivery receipt. Please make sure all items are present and accounted for before signing the delivery receipt as we are not responsible for missing items once the delivery receipt is signed without designation of missing item(s).
- Delivery charges may be incurred for missed delivery times, excessive delivery times, and difficult to reach delivery locations (i.e. tell us you are on a dead end skinny street with no turn around for a truck and maybe we can accommodate for this in advance).
